JEFF AND TOM

Big flavor in small batches™

Two spoons, one kettle and a fresh idea (oh and a couple of hats, too). That's how Jeff Garstka and Tom Gorski started Appledore Cove in 2002. From that very first appearance at a local food festival, they've continued their dedication to making foods slowly and carefully by hand with only the finest and freshest local ingredients. Jeff and Tom hope you'll enjoy this labor of love.
